

CHAPTER 464.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE STEWARTSVILLE CEMETERY ASSOCIATION.

Preamble: ancient cemetery.      Whereas, in Stewartsville Township, county of Scotland, in the State of North Carolina, there is a very large cemetery or graveyard, known as Stewartsville Graveyard, in which there are a great many graves of very distinguished persons, some of the

Preamble: continued neglect.      very oldest graves in this section; and whereas the said graveyard has for many years been neglected because of the fact that there is no one whose duty it is to look after the same; and

Preamble: desire for care.      whereas there is a desire in that section that the same shall be properly cared for: Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Corporators.      SECTION 1. That H. C. McQueen, William McQueen, A. J. McKinnon, Hector McLean, William Black, W. H. McLaurin, John M. McCormick, John D. McCallum, J. P. Wiggins, A. W. McLean, James P. McRae, A. McL. McRae, H. W. Malloy, Daniel McKenzie, and D. A. Patterson be and they are hereby created a body politic under the name of Stewartsville Cemetery Association.

Incorporation.      SEC. 2. That this corporation is hereby vested with power to receive by gift, purchase, deed, or otherwise all such real and personal property as may be necessary for the purposes of this act, and said corporation may convey by deed or otherwise real or personal property.

Corporate name.      Power to receive and convey property.

Common seal.      SEC. 3. This corporation may have a common seal, and shall have for its officers a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and a treasurer, and such other officers as to it may seem proper.

Officers.      SEC. 4. This corporation is hereby granted all such powers as may be necessary to manage a cemetery, and may make all such rules and regulations as to it may seem best in regard to the burial of bodies and the perpetuation and maintenance of the said cemetery, and shall have all such other and further powers as may be necessary to manage, control, enlarge, curtail, improve, continue, and perpetuate the same.

Corporate powers.      SEC. 5. The incorporators named herein, or any five of them, shall meet in the town of Maxton, State aforesaid, after two weeks advertisement in some newspaper published in Laurinburg and in Maxton for two weeks prior to said meeting; said notice shall state the hour and place of said meeting, and having so met, may organize under this charter, and may associate with them such other persons as they may deem proper, make by-laws, and do such other and further acts as may be necessary for putting in effect this charter.

Meeting of corporators.      SEC. 5. The incorporators named herein, or any five of them, shall meet in the town of Maxton, State aforesaid, after two weeks advertisement in some newspaper published in Laurinburg and in Maxton for two weeks prior to said meeting; said notice shall state the hour and place of said meeting, and having so met, may organize under this charter, and may associate with them such other persons as they may deem proper, make by-laws, and do such other and further acts as may be necessary for putting in effect this charter.

Advertisement of meeting.      SEC. 5. The incorporators named herein, or any five of them, shall meet in the town of Maxton, State aforesaid, after two weeks advertisement in some newspaper published in Laurinburg and in Maxton for two weeks prior to said meeting; said notice shall state the hour and place of said meeting, and having so met, may organize under this charter, and may associate with them such other persons as they may deem proper, make by-laws, and do such other and further acts as may be necessary for putting in effect this charter.

Organization.      SEC. 5. The incorporators named herein, or any five of them, shall meet in the town of Maxton, State aforesaid, after two weeks advertisement in some newspaper published in Laurinburg and in Maxton for two weeks prior to said meeting; said notice shall state the hour and place of said meeting, and having so met, may organize under this charter, and may associate with them such other persons as they may deem proper, make by-laws, and do such other and further acts as may be necessary for putting in effect this charter.

By-laws.      SEC. 5. The incorporators named herein, or any five of them, shall meet in the town of Maxton, State aforesaid, after two weeks advertisement in some newspaper published in Laurinburg and in Maxton for two weeks prior to said meeting; said notice shall state the hour and place of said meeting, and having so met, may organize under this charter, and may associate with them such other persons as they may deem proper, make by-laws, and do such other and further acts as may be necessary for putting in effect this charter.